Institutional Profiles Notes – Kansas State University Extension Systems and Agricultural Research Programs (KSRE)

General Notes:

1. Kansas State University – Extension Systems & Agricultural Research Programs (KSRE) is a statewide network of educators sharing unbiased, research-based information and expertise on issues important to Kansas. It has established local, state, regional, national, and international partnerships and is dedicated to a safe, sustainable, competitive food and fiber system and to strong, healthy communities, families, and youth through integrated research, analysis and education. This integrated system connects the university to every county through locally based educators who serve as sources of objective information.
2. Extension Systems and Agricultural Research Programs of Kansas State University is a separate state agency for purpose of governor's budget report and related legislative measures.
3. KSRE does not contain student enrollment and demographic data as it primarily serves a research and service function.
4. Definitions of terms in this section can be found in the Glossary.
5. Due to rounding, numbers may not match other published reports.
6. In Fiscal Years 2020 through 2024, the universities received and expended varying amounts of funding for COVID-19 relief. These amounts are primarily reflected as restricted use expenditures.
7. State University finance data can also be found in the Kansas Higher Education Statistics (KHEStats). KHEStats is a web-based reporting tool providing access to data about Kansas public postsecondary institutions. KHEStats allows users to view trends, filter reports, and perform comparisons through regularly updated dashboards, graphs, and charts. KHEStats can be accessed at stats.kansasregents.org/.
