

Obtaining Official GED Records

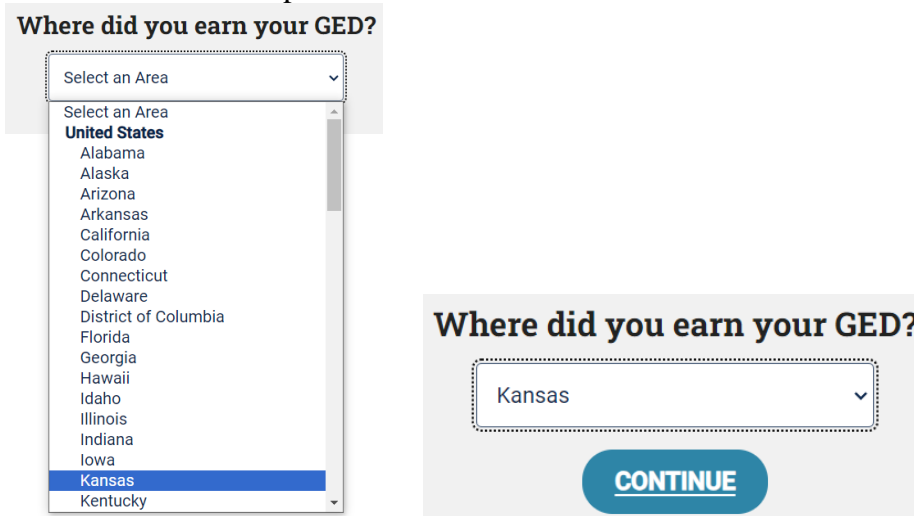

1. At www.ged.com, select “Grads and Transcripts” from the menu at the top of the screen.

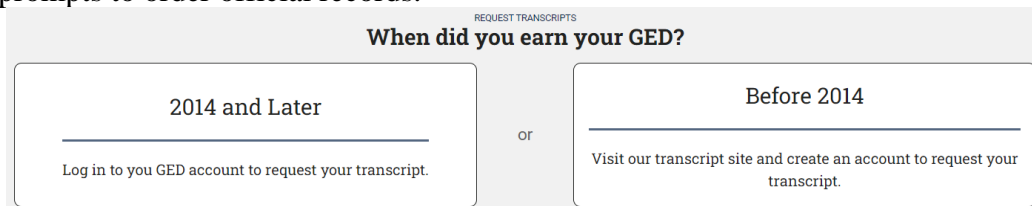

2. Select either “GED Grads” or “Third Parties.”

3. Select Kansas from the drop-down menu and select “Continue.”

The image shows a form titled 'Where did you earn your GED?'. On the left, a drop-down menu is open, showing a list of states: Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas (highlighted in blue), and Kentucky. On the right, the same form is shown with 'Kansas' selected in the drop-down menu and a blue 'CONTINUE' button below it.

4. Select either “2014 and Later” or “Before 2014,” depending on the date of completion. The system will then prompt users to create or access the GED account. Follow the prompts to order official records.

The image shows a form titled 'When did you earn your GED?'. There are two buttons: '2014 and Later' with the text 'Log in to your GED account to request your transcript.' and 'Before 2014' with the text 'Visit our transcript site and create an account to request your transcript.'. The word 'or' is placed between the two buttons.

5. For additional assistance, contact Parchment using the Chat feature at www.parchment.com or call the Parchment Help Line at 847-716-3005.