

FOUNDATIONS OF THE SCIENCE OF READING

ENROLLMENT IS OPEN!

SCAN TO APPLY NOW

STEP 1: Apply to course online by scanning the QR code above or visit <https://www.pittstate.edu/apply.html>

- In the middle 'Graduate' column, select Non-degree Seeking/Workshop/Greenbush/Other
- In the 'Program of Study' section, select Non-Degree Seeking under 'Major/Emphasis/Degree' and then select Blueprint for Literacy from the 'Location' drop down menu

MEET YOUR COURSE
INSTRUCTOR
Glenda Jones

Glenda is a lifelong lover of books and passionate literacy advocate with over 30 years in public education, including roles as a classroom teacher, reading specialist, and literacy coach in Title I schools. She now teaches literacy courses at Pittsburg State University, bringing her deep expertise and love for children's literature to every class. Glenda is excited to support your journey in literacy instruction!

STEP 2: Email the below documents to Kristi Stuck at kstuck@pittstate.edu

- Copy of Teaching License
- Completed W-9 Form
- Statement from Principal for Proof of Employment

Spots are limited and will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. First consideration will be given to teachers and special ed personnel.

NO FEES +
$500 STIPEND

Receive the stipend upon successful completion of the second course with a passing score of 85% or higher.

PITTSTATE

QUESTIONS?

Contact Dr. Jason Clemensen
at jclemensen@pittstate.edu